Dear Elizabeth,

I published a true article about you. Now your daughter has taken offense and is calling everyone racist.

I don't want to go after her or make this ugly.

To be honest I think you are a liar as well as a public records and civil rights violator. You also know I have objective evidence of what I say.

I don't like going after people's families as I am not a monster like the people you work with.

I suggest you immediately tell your daughter to stop committing defamation per se, or I may changed my mind, there are also others she is defaming who may decide to sue her themselves, and they would have every right to.

I certainly hope you didn't raise your daughter to go around falsely calling everyone she disagrees with a racist, KKK member or white nationalist. However, I wouldn't be surprised if she is acting the exact way you taught her. Prove me wrong.

Sincerely,

Dr.James Eric McDonough
